Owner Department	Human Resources
Category	Policy
Applies To	All employees
Supersedes	COC-01 v1.0

1. Purpose

1.1 Why this code exists

Guests choose Aurelle because they trust us. This code describes the behaviour that protects that trust, between colleagues and with every guest, supplier and partner.

1.2 Scope

The code covers all employees, including trainees and temporary staff, at every property and at the corporate office.

1.3 Declaration

All employees must sign the Code of Conduct declaration before their first shift.

2. Respect at work

2.1 Harassment and discrimination

Harassment, discrimination or bullying of guests or colleagues is prohibited and must be reported through the Speak Up line or to Human Resources.

2.2 The Speak Up line

The Speak Up line is an independent, confidential reporting channel available by phone and web, 24 hours a day, in English, Arabic and Malay. Reports are reviewed by the Group Ethics Officer.

3. Gifts and hospitality

3.1 Background

Guests sometimes offer small gifts as thanks for good service. Aurelle welcomes this appreciation while keeping decisions free from influence.

3.2 Gift limit

Employees may accept unsolicited gifts from guests up to a value of USD 25; any gift above this value must be declared to the Duty Manager within 24 hours.

4. Appearance

4.1 Uniform

Employees must wear the full Aurelle uniform and name badge while on duty, following the grooming standard in Annex A.

4.2 Uniform issue

Uniforms are issued by the Uniform Room on Day 1 and laundered by the property.

4.3 Name badges

Name badges show the employee's first name and the languages they speak.

4.4 Maintenance workwear

Maintenance Technicians are exempt from the uniform standard in Section 4.1 and must instead wear the engineering workwear and PPE required by HSP-01.

5. Social media

5.1 Guest privacy online

Employees must not post photographs of guests, guest rooms or back-of-house areas on personal social media.

5.2 Official channels

Aurelle's official social media accounts are managed by the Communications team at the corporate office.

6. Integrity

6.1 Honest records

Accurate records, from time sheets to guest folios, are the foundation of trust with guests and auditors.

6.2 Company property

Company equipment, systems and supplies exist for Aurelle business.

6.3 Conflicts of interest

Conflicts of interest, including family relationships with suppliers, must be declared to Human Resources in writing.
