1. Purpose and terms

1.1 Terms used

In this document, Manager on Duty (MOD) means the Duty Manager on shift at the property. Outside office hours the MOD is the most senior manager present.

2. Reporting incidents

2.1 Injuries

Any injury to a guest or employee must be reported to the Manager on Duty (MOD) within 15 minutes.

2.2 How to reach the MOD

The MOD carries the duty phone at all times. The number is printed on the back of every staff ID badge.

2.3 Data breaches

Suspected data breaches must be reported to the Manager on Duty and the IT Service Desk within 24 hours.

3. Management escalation

3.1 Severity 1 incidents

The Duty Manager must notify the General Manager within 30 minutes of any Severity 1 incident, meaning death, serious injury, fire, police involvement or a data breach.

3.2 Incident reports

The Duty Manager must complete the Incident Report in the incident system before the end of the shift for all Severity 1 and 2 incidents.

3.3 Severity levels

Severity	Examples	Escalation
1	Death, serious injury, fire, police involvement, data breach	MOD, General Manager, Group Security
2	Minor injury, theft, guest dispute, property damage	MOD, Department Head
3	Service failure, minor complaint	Department supervisor

4. Communications

4.1 Media enquiries

Employees must not speak to the media about any incident and must refer all enquiries to the Communications team.

5. Training

5.1 Crisis simulations

The corporate Security team runs a crisis simulation at each property once a year.

5.2 Crisis Communication training

Duty Managers must complete Crisis Communication training within their first two weeks.
